Week 6 - I think we'll take it.

Lady: There's office space, sleeping quarters and showers...
...and there's a full kitchen.

Peter: It just seems a little pricey for a unique fixer-upper opportunity, that's all.
What do you think, Egon?

Egon: I think this building should be condemned.
There's metal fatigue in all the load-bearing members.
The wiring is substandard. It's inadequate for our power needs.
And the neighborhood is like a demilitarized zone.

Ray: Hey, does this pole still work?
Wow, this place is great. When can we move in?
You gotta try this pole. I'm gonna get my stuff.
Hey, we should stay here tonight, sleep here. You know, to try it out.

Peter: - I think we'll take it.
Lady: Good.
