Man: Excuse me, do you hear that noise coming from the bathroom?

Woman: Yes, it's very loud. I wonder what's going on.

Man: I'm not sure, but I think it might be a fire. We should probably leave the building just in case.

Woman: (panicking) Oh no, what should we do?

Man: Let's quickly gather our things and head out of the library. We can call 911 once we are outside.

Woman: (nodding) Okay, that sounds like a good plan.

Man: (while exiting the library) Sorry for interrupting your studies, but safety comes first.

Woman: (smiling) No worries, it's better to be safe than sorry.

Man: (taking a deep breath) By the way, my name is Alex. What's your name?

Woman: Hi Alex, I'm Laura.

Man: Nice to meet you, Laura. So, what were you studying before the alarm went off?

Woman: (laughing) To be honest, I was struggling to focus. I have a big exam coming up and I couldn't concentrate.

Man: I know how you feel. I have an important project due next week, and I've been having trouble staying focused too.

Woman: (interested) What kind of project is it?

Man: It's actually a website that I'm building for a client. I'm a freelance web developer.

Woman: (impressed) That's really cool. I've always been interested in technology and programming.

Man: (smiling) Well, I'm always happy to talk tech. Maybe we can grab a coffee sometime and chat more about it?

Woman: (smiling) I would like that. Here, let me give you my number.
