

A: Hey, have you heard about the new restaurant that just opened up downtown?

B: No, I haven't. What's it called?

A: It's called "The Green Table". They specialize in vegan cuisine.

B: That sounds interesting. Have you tried it yet?

A: Yeah, I went there last night with some friends. The food was amazing!

B: Really? What did you have?

A: I had the veggie burger and it was delicious. My friends had the lasagna and the tacos and they loved them too.

B: I'm not vegan, but I'm always open to trying new things. Maybe I'll check it out sometime.

A: You definitely should! The atmosphere is great too. It's a really cozy and welcoming place.
