

Week 10 Incredibles

I appreciate you coming down here, Mrs. Parr.
What's this about?
Has Dash done something wrong?
Uh, he's a disruptive influence, and he openly mocks me in (1)_____ of the class.
He says.
Look, I know it's you.
He puts thumbtacks on my (2)_____.
You saw him do this?
Well, not really.
No, actually not.
Oh, then how do you know it was him?
I hit a camera.
Yeah, and this time I've got him.
See?
You see?
Well, you don't see it?
He moves right there!
Wait, wait!
Right there!
Right as I'm sitting down!
I don't know.
I don't know how he does it.
But there's no tack on my stool before he moves,
and after he moves, there's a (3)_____!
Coincidence?
I think not!
Uh, Bernie...
Don't Bernie me!
This little rat is guilty!
You and your son can go now, Mrs. Parr.
I'm sorry for the (4)_____.
You're letting him go again?
He's guilty!
You can see it on his smug little face!
Guilty!
I say guilty!
Guilty!
Guilty!
No!
No!
No!
Dash.
This is the (5)_____ time this year you've been sent to the office.
We need to find a better outlet.
A more...
constructive outlet.
Maybe I could, if you'd let me go out for sports.
Honey, you know why we can't do that.

But I promise I'll slow up.
I'll only be the best by a tiny bit!
Dash old Robert Parr, you are an incredibly competitive boy!
And a bit of a (6)_____.
The last thing you need is temptation.
You always say, do your best, but you don't really mean it.
Why can't I do the best that I can do?
Right now, (7)_____, the world just wants us to fit in, and to fit in, we just gotta be like everybody else.
But Dad always said our powers are nothing to be ashamed of.
Our powers made us special.
Everyone's special, Dash.
Which is (8)_____ way of saying no one is.
